Virtue of the Week – LOVE OF LEARNING

“Get wisdom; get insight; do not forget, and do not turn away from the words of my mouth. Do not forsake her, and she will keep you; love her, and she will guard you.”
(Proverbs 4:5-6)

You might be awarded a love of learning virtue for doing things like:

- Showing effort and enthusiasm
- Producing good quality work
- Completing additional / independent work

- You have a desire for knowledge and are happy learning new things and growing in understanding.
- You are attracted by what is worth knowing and away from what is not.
- You give time to learning and you seek what is true and what is good.
- You do not give time to rumour or gossip.
- You are open minded and open to change.

Love of learning

Knowledge

Learning is something we do every day, sometimes without even realizing it! We are students for life and grow in curiosity the more we explore the world. Have a look at the following videos below and think of what message each one gives you, what is your key takeaway from it?

Reasoning

1. What have you learnt recently? This can be a small or a big thing!
2. Is there a particular lesson in school you enjoy? Why?

Practice

1. Always be open to taking new opportunities made available to you, it might inspire you.
2. Try to learn something new every day, it can be anything at all!
3. Share the knowledge, you never know you might teach someone something important or even change someone's life!
