Week 15 22/07/24	Flamingo land	In school events	Summer	Summer

Curriculum Intent:

Pupils will read and perform the Philip Pullman adaptation of Frankenstein- the playscript. The play teaches pupils Shelly's infamous story of a scientist and his monster whilst explicitly exploring and discussing the themes of remorse, isolation, creation, responsibility and human need. This SOW combines studying a play and using emotional understanding when performing the scenes as well as developing analytical literacy through examining the methods. This will also build cultural capital with the year 7 cohort.

Curricular Links:

Follows on from key literary themes studied -the Gothic-The Graveyard Book and A Monster Calls.

Precedes explorations of culture in Year 8.

Develops and re-establishes, how to read and study a playscript-Links to studying a play, playscript (AIC, SHAKESPEARE).

Develops awareness of 19th Century Fiction.
